The Bollhoefer Scout BSA Leader Award

To be recognized at the Annual District Dinner

In 2008, the Scoutmaster Emeritus award was presented to Phil Bollhoefer, Troop 601 Scoutmaster (now Rancho Cordova), for his many years of services to the Scouting program in the Sacramento and Rancho Cordova area. Mr. Bollhoefer's troop was never very large nor did they win many camporee awards, but he and his Scouts were always at each camporee and would always put on an event. He was also an Order of the Arrow Vigil member and attended council, district and OA events, Roundtables, trainings and was a mentor to Scouts and Scouter by following the Eagle Scout challenge to "Give back to scouting more than it has given you."

Due to the excellent example set by Mr. Bollhoefer the districts Scoutmaster Emeritus award was changed to The Bollhoefer Scoutmaster Award in 2010. In 2013 this award was expanded to also recognize troop's Assistant Scoutmaster or Committee member.

Nominations are being accepted, for individuals who were or are a Scout BSA leader for a troop in the Capital City District.
