Basic Outdoor Training for Cub/Webelos Leaders & Adults

Pack overnights and Webelos den campouts require a BALOO-trained Scouter.

Prior to taking this course you must complete the online BALOO Prerequisite Training to be considered "BALOO trained." The course is available through the BSA Learning Center.

Log on to my.scouting.org. Select the BSA Learning Center image on the right side of the screen. Scroll down to "Expanded Learning" and select the "BALOO" image.

Fee includes course material, a campfire snack Friday, and food for Saturday breakfast & lunch. (Please bring a sack dinner for Friday night.)

BALOO is the outdoor training designed for leaders and adults in the Cub Scout program. These classes will cover the basics of equipment, cooking, campfire, health & safety, and planning for your Outdoor Scouting program.

Please wear your uniform, as well as weather appropriate clothing because the training will be outside. What to bring:

Sleeping gear, Tent, Sleeping Bag/ Pad, Toiletries/Personal Gear, Personal Eating Utensils (including a cup), Flashlight, First Aid Kit, Insect repellent, Folding Chair, Notebook, Pen/pencil

Pre-Registration is required. We want to have enough material and food for all who attend. In order to ensure that we have enough, please pre-register by March 20, 2019.
