

SCOUTING FOR FOOD

March 13, 2010
Boy Scouts of America

Who?

- All Scouts! The boys should travel in groups of two (Buddy System) or more.
- Scouts should wear uniforms when collecting food and use proper manners.
- Appropriate supervision should be provided by parents and leaders.
- Scouts should not enter any home.

What?

- Collect non-perishable food items.

Where?

- Identify a territory to cover. Sign-up on the map at Roundtable.

When?

- Drop off your collected food at the Placer Food Bank at 8484 Industrial Avenue in Roseville between 11 a.m. and 2 p.m. (new location near Arena Softball)
- When you arrive, help unload. Pre-sort the collected food by category: Fruit, Vegetables, Meats, Soups, Pasta/Beans, and Other.

Why?

- To help the needy residents of Roseville.
- To participate with millions of other scouts across the country in helping our neighbors.
