

BASIC BACKPACKING AWARENESS

An Outdoor Awareness Seminar to develop Basic Outing Skills and Resources

Cost: $35 / Person – Registration is available online only!

Click for the Registration link or on the Golden Empire Council Calendar

Indoor Session

Saturday, April 20, 2024 – 8:00 am to 5:00 pm at the Rancho Cordova Church of Christ
10577 Coloma Rd, Rancho Cordova, CA 95670

Cost Includes physical materials for you to keep

In reducing this indoor session to a single day, each participant will receive a pre-course email with links to additional at home training that will be required for completion of this course

Topics include: Route selection & planning, equipment, wilderness navigation, food, first aid, backcountry living, leave no trace, where to go, and more!

Outdoor Session

May 18-19, 2024 at a location TBD

During the outdoor session we will practice those skills needed in the backcountry

Presented by the Golden Empire Council, High Adventure Team

Space is limited to the first 24 registrants

Registration closes March 21

No refunds after registration closes

No in-person registration will be accepted

This program is open to all registered Adult Scout Leaders and responsible Youth Leaders 14 and older.

Youth Leaders must be accompanied by a parent/guardian or two adult leaders from their unit.

Additional pre-requisites for each participant, even from the same unit, to attend are:

BSA Medical Form (Parts A, B, and C)

Hazardous Weather Training (found at your my.scouting.org training page)

Cal Fire permit <https://www.readyforwildfire.org/permits/campfire-permit/>

Questions: Jeff Berg scoutmasterberg@gmail.com or Charles Potter charles.potter@cdtfa.ca.gov