

YOLO DISTRICT AWARDS NOMINATION FORM

BOY SCOUT OF THE YEAR

The Yolo District Boy Scout of the Year will be awarded annually to the Boy Scout who has shown, above all others, exemplary dedication to live by the three pillars of the Boy Scout Oath: Duty to God and Country, Duty to Other People, and Duty to Self. The nominee should be unaware of his nomination for the award. Each nominee must meet the general requirements to be eligible for nomination. He will then be graded, according to the three pillars, and compared against the other nominees in a blind fashion. Please try to avoid putting any identifying information on the application other than on this first page.

- Be actively registered in a Boy Scout Troop within the Yolo District of the Golden Empire Council.
